*A sample of correspondence received
March 2013*

Our purpose in publishing a sampling of the correspondence we have received, in the words of Arthur W. Pink:

“...the time has again arrived for us to indicate to our loyal supporters before the Throne of Grace something of the manner and extent to which the Hearer of prayer has been pleased to grant their requests.”

“Our object in compiling this...feature is to evoke praise and thanksgiving on the part of those who are most deeply interested in this work, by quoting excerpts from some of the letters at hand telling of help and blessing received, under God...”

“Our purpose...is to evoke praise unto the Lord, that in this cloudy and dark day He is still ministering to His own, giving seed to the Sower, and then blessing the same unto the eater. We know not why the mighty God should condescend to use one so feeble and unworthy; sufficient for us that He is pleased to do so. Our longing is to be used more widely, in sending ‘portions’ to a large number of Christ’s scattered and hungry sheep. Will you not pray more definitely, dear reader, that this may be so; and that God will graciously fit and furnish the writer.”

In my daily evangelizing street ministry I came upon a pastor... [who] pastors a Seventh Day Baptist Church. Of course, they have similar views as the Seventh Day Adventists who believe like the Jews that the real Sabbath day begins at sundown each Friday. I visited this Baptist minister several Saturdays ago and gave him a copy of your book [The Sabbath and the Lord’s Day].... Hopefully I will hear from him, but I’m not holding my breath. I’m finding myself using your books in ministry as time moves along more and more.

I have been reading your website... and would like to thank you for your stand for true Biblical Protestantism, and for your stand against the Romish Whore.

We are really looking forward to [Shaun Willcock’s] continued exposition of the Book of Revelation. We are finding them most informative and searching and are recommending them to others. Warm Christian greetings to you and may [he] be helped in all his labours in the Lord’s precious Name.

– sent me your book, Trappings of Popery. I had read many of the inclusions of the book previously, but find the total binding such a good and important work for all time. You are a very good writer, one of my favorites. It is one of the greatest burdens I bear, to be surrounded by so many who care so little for the wisdom of the Lord through authors that He has raised up, yet so enthralled by the writings of foolish men.

United States

I was sure that there was a cat among the pigeons in the Mandela story... too nice to be true... your article ["Nelson Mandela International Day": a Substitute Messiah is Idolised by the World] has opened my eyes and brain. Yes another saviour is depicted; yes another lie. We have only one Saviour in Jesus.

Thank you for the very insightful messages. As you noted in the last letter, both [American] presidential hopefuls have Papists as vice contenders. This once again proves that Rome is really in charge irrespective of the main contenders who are also in Satan's camp. But history shows that Rome is behind all the events and... will only be defeated by the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Rome through the Jesuits controls everything, from the UN to the small countries all over the world, even the Republic of South Africa is clutched in the hand of Rome.

Thank you for making things so clear and for inspiring studies to understand the events unfolding. The Lord bless you.

Something I was reading today mentioned how few there are that bring to light the evils of sin in today's world.... Certainly your ministry has been faithful through the years in proclaiming the whole counsel of God. You are someone that can be counted on to compare scripture to scripture and therefore all that hear are brought to benefit. Indeed it is sobering to us that witness your ministry to know that we are given much and will be held to much more. We are blessed very greatly because you stand on the truth of the Gospel. Thank you.

United States

How right you are [our article Comrade Barack Obama: President of the United Socialist States of America!] Thank you for the article. America is in deep trouble and I believe history is repeating itself; for example, Germany, Russia, China, North Korea and other countries. Generations of young people have been indoctrinated through our educational institutions to buy into the lies of evolution and socialism and communism, the entitlement mentality and now they are the "useless idiots" that will be used to bring about our enslavement and destruction. When many people were asked why they voted for Obama it was because he was good looking, or because he would be our first black president. Americans are some of the most undiscerning, naive people on the planet. They have rewritten history and deceived the masses and freedom is no longer a high priority. We deserve everything that is coming down the pipe. I honestly believe God is judging America. She has had the most light and to whom much is given much will be required. May God show mercy in judgment. Christians will be the ones who will suffer the most. Thank you for your prayers. God bless you.

Alliance with the Vatican is a sure hope for progress [after receiving The Vatican/Obama Alliance]. Let no one be deceived. Shaun Willcock should not deceive you.

Country unknown (email)

Thank you for The Vatican/Obama Alliance paper. We have forwarded it on to several folk. Although we live in South Australia, we see Rome's creeping hand behind so much in the world. We always say "Rome never sleeps!" With the majority of "churches" teaching Futurism now, the remnant grows ever smaller, but we rejoice in our soon coming Lord. God bless you.

Australia

[We] were talking the other night about how very blessed we are to be able to listen to your sermons etc. We thank the Lord for you and the fact that you are a true servant of his, rightly dividing the Word and edifying, rebuking and encouraging us in our faith. Oh that more ministers of the Gospel spent the time studying the Word, history and other resources like you do. There is such an abundance of men who know about the doctrines of grace and yet fall way short on other things. They discount anything "inconvenient" like the head-covering, the fact that charismatic churches and doctrines are heresy, the papacy as Antichrist....and on and on it goes. There seems to be a belief in "Christendom" that as long as you believe the "core essentials" of the faith that you are a Christian. Yet they discard any teaching that doesn't suit them. Also, you hear so-called evangelicals embracing Lutherans as Christian even though they hold to heretical views on baptism etc. No one wants to offend anyone, unless they're an out and out heretic such as Joel Osteen or TD Jakes and the like. I recently heard a man say that only 3,000 people were killed during the Inquisition! Can you believe that? And he's not a papist, but a professing evangelical/baptist. The papacy has done a magnificent job distorting historical facts.

United States

Greetings in the name of the Most High God. We have received the book you sent to us (Satan's Seat). It is a wonderful book to us and will be so helpful to me and the church here. We say thanks and thanks a lot for your effort to send us this book. I request you to send us more of the books as you get funds to do so.

I thought it would be courteous and encouraging to tell you I gave out about 50 copies of your Hindu tract [Reincarnation or Resurrection?] yesterday during open air preaching I did at the Diwali festival in Trafalgar Square [London]. Interestingly, at least one Muslim and three Sikhs took the leaflet, as well as westerners. Thank you for your labours in writing the leaflet. I would value your prayers regarding church membership. I am in regular attendance at – , but not a member. I greatly appreciate the ministry there, and the evangelistic fervour, but I have reservations about a number of things, one of the biggest being their move away from reformed doctrine regarding the papacy as the Antichrist. There are one or two other fellowships that do believe the papacy is the Antichrist but they fall short either on baptism (I hold to believers' baptism) or they seem to lack evangelistic fervour, or I am greatly disillusioned by their unrepentant toleration of a minister involved at the highest levels of the masonic "Secret Orders".
Am I being too demanding/unrealistic?

England

(In Reply):

Regarding church membership, I can fully appreciate the problem you have.... I firmly believe that for church membership, one should be in full agreement with the church's doctrine and practice. Otherwise problems will always develop later on. For this reason I can say without hesitation that even if that issue of the Papacy was the only difference I had with a local church, it would prevent me from having membership in that church. Likewise with believers' baptism, etc. These are important issues. As for a church having a pastor in masonry, that is just shocking and should disqualify the man from the ministry in itself.

Therefore, in an answer to your question, no I do not believe you are being too demanding or unrealistic. Church membership is a solemn matter, and the members of a local church need to be in agreement with the church's confession of faith in both doctrine and practice. –

Thank you for sharing this [article] with me [America: Communism Triumphant], I appreciate it and am going to share it with others too.

South Africa

Thank you so much for your report [America: Communism Triumphant]. I have only gotten halfway through it, and from what I've read (so far) I can say that it is brilliant in its analysis and chilling in its truth. Yet so many Americans are absolutely clueless as to what is happening in the world (especially in the US).

United States

Thanks so much for the excellent article on American Communism [America: Communism Triumphant]. You summed it up so well by simply showing how the Vatican uses Communism, Communism uses Islam and because the American mind has been so bent through the media and music that we were simply sheep led to slaughter. How true that we have a pretty good fear of Muslims but Islam is used by Rome as a diversion while the cause of Rome is infiltrated into the American Culture. I would think that the [U.S.] "conservative movement" mentioned by [Romanian defector] Pacepa is backed by Rome as well pretty much because we lost our freedoms under Bush just as fast and I don't think Romney ever said he would reverse that, or his Catholic Vice President. I appreciate all the effort you put into the article. It was very well written.

United States

Enjoyed very much your article on our Communist take-over [America: Communism Triumphant]. It's excellent!! How can anyone doubt that what you wrote is true? No one who thinks critically or just looks around them could think otherwise. We have most certainly completely fallen to the Marxist/Communists. I recently heard a brief bit from an interview of a former KJB agent. Everything he described as to a Communist takeover of a country has or is happening here. I wonder if he's the same man you refer to in your article. As you said, we are all in a terrible situation. Yes, that such a wicked man could be re-elected is astonishing. But you're right, the elections are a fraud anyway. Who knows if he was elected by actual votes or by fraud. Obama will probably get his "civilian army" going now and have them go after their perceived enemies.

I recently heard about a "ministry" (makes you ill to call it that) called "XXX Ministry". They "minister" to hookers in brothels by fixing up their dens of iniquity. They don't even share the Gospel with them. They don't know it so I guess it's to be expected. Anyway, they are currently going around the country with a male porn star so that he can share his testimony of his "relationship with God" with so-called churches. He plays "Amazing Grace" on his harmonica as well. Can the Lord's judgment on this country be too severe? What a disgusting mess this place is....and the supposed "church" here is a vile abomination.

I watched a story on the "Right to Die" movement in this country recently and was sickened more than I thought I would be. We know it's sinful, but the absolute creepiness of it was astounding. I know a lot of these people are deluded into thinking they are showing mercy and kindness to those who want to end their own lives, but of course, we know they are accomplices to murder. As if being in pain or having a terrible disease gives you the right to end your own life; or help someone do it. And who is the arbiter of how much pain is enough to justify killing yourself? Satan has thought of every evil way to destroy the human race imaginable. It was a shocking thing to watch and so sad.

United States

I thank you so very much for telling the truth about this satanic organization, that presents herself as a Christian church, thank you so much from the bottom of my heart.

(Sent by a concerned reader to people on his own email list)

In our quest for religious and political freedom here in the U.S. it is at least at times that we forget there are others in other parts of the world who are also striving against oppressive bigots who go to great extremes, including murder, in order to force their degrading and oppressive standards on others. I strongly recommend everyone to apply for the free emails from Shaun Willcock who lives in South Africa and is fighting strongly against standards that are dehumanizing and being forced on the population of South Africa in order for the communists in power to live lavishly. What we see taking place in South Africa on a large scale, is of similar stature to what is politically being attempted to put into place here in the U.S. May we also remember him in our thoughts and prayers.

United States

Thank you for sending this [Snippets from South Africa January 2013]. It is truly horrific! We believe that Rome is "using" South Africa as a "test" case for world dominance and to bring in "Rarum Nararum" (Rome's re-distribution of wealth). God bless you.

Australia

We appreciate the encouraging words and prayers. It seems that as believers we are all continually entering new trials and exiting old ones. I longingly look forward to the Lord's return. We listened to your How to Know God's Will sermon and it truly was a blessing. It spoke right to our hearts and confirmed the path we are currently taking. The scriptures about material gain were exactly what I needed to hear.

Don't be weary or ever lose heart in doing what you're doing considering the Lord is using the gift he has given you to teach and encourage the brethren! We thank the Lord for you and pray for his blessings to be upon all of you.

United States

I do think your ministry is very important and you certainly opened my eyes.... Keep going Shaun, your message is so different from the average worldly wolves in sheep's clothing who are leading the flock astray. I know, I was one of that flock until I... had your booklet dumped in my lap, to my absolute horror (The Pagan Festivals of Christmas and Easter). Then I went through the millennial Methodist Conference which was a revealing experience which I would probably not have discerned had you not got hold of my mind first. So believe me, your CD's, booklets, pamphlets etc. are invaluable and God has somebody, like me, waiting out there in the wings for your ministry to touch and turn.... You are blessed and you are also a blessing to others.

What you do not comprehend ought to move you to studies and prayers for insight and revelation, not destructive criticism [after reading the article The Rat(zinger) Abandons His Ship]. The Catholic Church has Christ as her founder and since then He is with the only church He has founded and promised to be with her till the end of time.

Why are you worried over issues that do not concern you... that is pure jealousy and it is sinful. Beware of what you say about this Church – HOLY ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH – or the wrath of God will fall on you.

Country unknown (email)

A quick note to say I saw your article on Ratzinger [The Rat(zinger) Abandons His Ship].... It appears that you did a major amount of work in comprising such an account in so brief a time. You have such a grasp of the subject that few others obtain and I just think it is the fruits of all your study over the years... all the hard work that few are aware of but that gives glory to God.

United States

...excellent article on the current Pope leaving the seat of Anti-Christ while still alive [The Rat(zinger) Abandons His Ship]. Your first few points were on the areas I expected and written without overly stating it as fact but WOW – I did not know about the false prophecies - the history about it. Truly taking the step fits within this Pope's background as well as with the Jesuits' plans to always have non-Catholics that claim to be Christian caught up in their false last days lies and make them look stupid and foolish to the world.

Truly got a lot out of the extremely well written article.

United States

I am listening to your expositions on the Book of Revelation and I am finding them so instructive. I have always found it a difficult book to understand but when you explain it, it seems so simple and precise – the unfolding of the Lord's will and in such minute detail! How wonderful that the Lord is in control and has ordered everything and will continue to do so until the end of time.

Oh to be one of that favoured few – a sinner saved by grace.

O may my blood-washed soul be found

Among that favoured band!

And I, with them, thy praise will sound

Throughout Immanuel's land.

We are looking forward to the next chapter when you have finished preaching it! May the Lord continue to uphold and help you in all your labours.

England

I found your article re: the Pope's resignation [The Rat(zinger) Abandons His Ship] to be fascinating and very well researched. You definitely did your homework (as always); and you presented a possible explanation for the Pope's sudden and shocking resignation that many of us had not even known or thought about before.

United States

Praise God for your writings and labours.

Australia

Thank you so much for your excellent article regarding the “popes” (white and black) [A Jesuit Becomes the Pope of Rome]. We have sent this on to many folk in Australia. May the Lord continue to bless and encourage you.

Australia

Thank you for all your efforts in exposing Roman Catholicism. May it be HIS will for you to carry on. Please be careful in all your activities. I would not put it past some of your enemies to try something adverse against you in retaliation for your honest exposure of Roman Catholicism.

United States

The article was great [A Jesuit Becomes the Pope of Rome]. Unlike most writers who even touch on these types of subjects you... don't overstate things or make bold predictions and you let things play out and comment wisely from a biblical perspective. No one can ever rightly say that your articles are later exposed as false or completely wrongheaded. They are always so sound and on point and kept in proper perspective.

We truly live in amazing times and the world has no understanding of what just happened with the election of a Jesuit Pope.

United States

I found your article [Separation from the World] very challenging, may the Lord keep us from the evils of this world and help us to let our light shine in the midst of a dark, dark world.

England

As former Roman Catholics converted to Christ, we recognize the real need for the evangelization of those who are in bondage to Rome, and in these days of false ecumenism, we believe Bible Based Ministries to be especially vital in this regard. In the current climate of the ongoing clergy abuse scandal we believe as well that a door for their evangelization has been opened by the Lord. It is our fervent hope and prayer that many of these poor lost benighted souls (as we once were) will both hear and heed the command of the Lord Jesus Christ as it is found in Rev. 18:4: “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.”

United States

I just read that a group of Argentinians were protesting [Bergoglio's] election as the Roman pope because of his activities there in the 70's and 80's like you mentioned [the article a Jesuit Becomes the Pope of Rome]. It looks like the Vatican took care of that objection very quickly – dismissing it as false accusations of course. It's incredible how the media is trying to make him look like the sweetest thing since cotton candy. What deception! I loved your points about his so-called humility. What a joke! The man wears a gold ring worth $50,000 and lives in a castle. All that 'austere' living of the Jesuits is such a smoke-screen.

United States

Just wanting to say thank you for all you do. We've just finished your sermon Be Strong and a Good Courage; it was very interesting and encouraging, so thank you for that! We have been enjoying going through the Revelation 16 series too. It's been a real eye-opener. Be encouraged, and keep going, we really do appreciate it so much!
