*A sample of correspondence received
November 2014*

Our purpose in publishing a sampling of the correspondence we have received, in the words of Arthur W. Pink:

“...the time has again arrived for us to indicate to our loyal supporters before the Throne of Grace something of the manner and extent to which the Hearer of prayer has been pleased to grant their requests.”

“Our object in compiling this...feature is to evoke praise and thanksgiving on the part of those who are most deeply interested in this work, by quoting excerpts from some of the letters at hand telling of help and blessing received, under God...”

“Our purpose...is to evoke praise unto the Lord, that in this cloudy and dark day He is still ministering to His own, giving seed to the Sower, and then blessing the same unto the eater. We know not why the mighty God should condescend to use one so feeble and unworthy; sufficient for us that He is pleased to do so. Our longing is to be used more widely, in sending ‘portions’ to a large number of Christ’s scattered and hungry sheep. Will you not pray more definitely, dear reader, that this may be so; and that God will graciously fit and furnish the writer.”

In the article [Roman Catholic Necromancy: Praying to Dead Popes] Elder Shaun Willcock sets forth once again the truth concerning the political organization, the Roman Catholic cesspool, masquerading as a religious entity. As you read his writing please note, among other things, he points out that all God’s born again children (His elect) are saints, and are so addressed and recognized as such while they live upon this earth; there is no such thing as purgatory; only one MEDIATOR between GOD and man, our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ; the Roman Catholic pope is anti-Christ; and Roman Catholicism is a demonic, political organization and has nothing to do with the truth as it is in Christ Jesus. May it be His will that Elder Willcock continues to broadcast such truths.

United States

I agree with a lot of your teachings; brilliant. Your writing is good because it is not hard to read, keeping it simple and easy to understand.

England

The booklet about the Jesuits [The Jesuits: the Secret Army of the Papacy] is very helpful to the believers here. Very few believers here own a computer – so I wonder if you can send two copies of the booklet.

Philippines

Thank you for the excellent article on Rwanda. We will spread it around...

Country unknown (by email)

I was absolutely astonished when I read your report on the Rwandan Genocide [The Rwandan Genocide and the Roman Catholic Institution!] I was never aware of this evil institution's involvement and I am so grateful to hear the truth! We will pray for the Rwandan people and thank you for the work that you are doing to bring the truth!

South Africa

I have been wondering if you could not make your sermons on Romans 9 – 11 [The Fallacy of a Future Mass Jewish Conversion] available in an e-book. The fallacy of a mass Jewish conversion at the end of this age is one that is spread like a black blanket over the whole earth, so it seems. Those messages are so enlightening. I want to listen to them again as soon as possible.

South Africa

I cry for the people who are perishing before knowing the truth of our true God. Your books have helped many to know the truth and to cry out to the true God and His Son Jesus Christ. Any book and pamphlet, please send to me... for easy reading to help our people know the truth.

Kenya

I find it amazing that those who proclaimed infant baptism among the Reformers persecuted and killed the Anabaptists. Thank you for taking a stand on this issue [after receiving the pamphlet Baptism: for Believers Only!].

United States

I read your testimony. Very encouraging. Much like some of mine. How [the Lord] keeps and teaches us bit by bit in spite of our mistakes. Your stand on Rome is very encouraging too, so few remember what history taught.... it's too awful to contemplate, isn't it? Just true! [There has been a] shocking turn back to paganism here, via Welsh culture.... What a mess!

UK (Wales)

The excerpts from your books are excellent. What really ministered to me, is the portion regarding the Sabbath. I have always maintained that Jesus is my Sabbath rest and you have confirmed. Thank you.

I would like your opinion as to which version of the Bible one must read.

South Africa

God bless you and your very important and edifying ministry.

United States

I recently came across your pamphlet on David Livingstone [The Life and Legacy of David Livingstone], and I would like to say thank you for taking the time to put it together. I recently read Martin Dugard's Into Africa and was very skeptical of his statements about Livingstone's sexuality (i.e. the 300+ wives, an African love-child, etc.). Yours was the only bit of information I found that actually addressed these issues, so thank you. It is unfortunate that today's culture requires some sort of sexual sub-plot behind every major script, especially at the expense of authentic history writing.

Livingstone is a fascinating character. I have many family members who are in Africa as missionaries, and so his story is dear to me. Do you have any other books you could recommend to me on his life?

Country unknown (by email)

I have greatly benefited from all that you send online, and your books, and usually make photocopies of everything online so that I can go back and re-read the information. Everything you write is excellent and much appreciated. Thank you for your strong Biblical stance and also political insights on how Rome fits into all of this!!

Rome has all but taken over America politically and has made such inroads into the Evangelical church that I don't think she will ever recover!! Apostasy is rampant and finding a solid Bible based church is like looking for a needle in a haystack....

I'm one most grateful lover of our Lord Jesus and His great mercy to me! That he would pluck me out of an unsaved family at age 23 some 52 years ago and keep me loving Him and His word and His people and His church and see me through my ups and downs, and many heartaches and losses and keep my heart on fire for Him is still so amazing to me! I've never been able to contemplate His love and grace without it causing tears to flow and awesome wonder! I'm a nobody and a nothing and yet He set His love on me!

Again thank you for your bold ministry for our Lord! May the Lord bless you!... May His Spirit continue to mightily work in you by His grace and truth!

United States

Today we listened to your series [exposing the false teachings of] William Branham [available on CD] – it was most interesting, thank you very much for doing all that research into his life.... Thanks very much again for all you do, we do really appreciate it! [We] were saying it's wonderful to have such a comprehensive body of teaching...

England

I enjoyed the CDs on The Antichrist, my pastor has copied them...

England

Every article you send to me, I print and give to 20 people and go round my community teaching them, they are in my file with the books. I will not sleep before I tell a person of the truth in the teachings.

Kenya

We pray for you. I made Xeroxed copies (English & Tagalog) of your article about the Doctrines of Grace for distribution.... The article is very helpful to us all!

Philippines

For your encouragement, I intend to place one of the copies [of Shaun Willcock's new book The Madness of Multiculturalism] in our church library; the more people that are educated in these matters, the better.

Northern Ireland

So pleased the Revelation 18 and 19 chapters are now available! We were recently talking about the next chapters as we have found your expositions so enlightening and instructive butwe just wish we could remember more!

England

I am working my way through your Covenant messages again and I find them a tremendous blessing. I am also busy with [the sermons on] Song of Solomon and those messages are so inspiring and wonderful. I lack the proper words to explain what benefit they prove to be to my soul. [The sermons on] Revelation get a turn on Sundays and most of the time I have to listen again after our initial first time of listening.

May the Lord bless those messages to many people and may He stir up more people to desire hearing those marvellous things. I can honestly say that most of what I have learnt has come from you. So thank you again and I praise the Lord for the insight He has given to you.

South Africa

Thank you so much for your latest article, "Protestant Pretenders Go On Pilgrimage to the Papacy". As usual it was well written and well researched, and it serves as another glaring reminder of everything that is so horribly wrong and spiritually dangerous with the Charismatic movement. Of course, as we know, these folks are in no way, shape or form true Protestants. It is a mockery to even call them Christians. Tragically, in this late day and age, there are still millions being deceived by their false teaching and heretical practices. And for this band of thieves and robbers to link arm-in-arm with the despicable Vatican shows just how completely devoid of truth they are. As you have written about and preached on before, the Charismatic movement is utterly dangerous because it is corrupt, worldly, glories in false "miracles and signs," encourages people to stay in apostate "protestant churches" and other "churches" which preach and teach a false gospel, and it accepts "extra-biblical messages" – just to name a few. In fact, as one writer put it, "once you accept 'extra-biblical messages', it is not long before you will be accepting 'ANTI-biblical messages,' as being valid." And sadly many are doing just that. Copeland is probably one of the biggest disgraces and con artists – since William M. Branham and Oral Roberts – who ever stepped into a so-called pulpit. And yet his opulent life style rolls on while the blinded, ear-tickled masses still write big checks (calling them "love offerings") to his sordid "ministry". It is beyond deplorable. But what your article definitely shows is how Copeland and his gang are promoting the ecumenical movement and the Roman Catholic "church" in such a fierce way. The serious doctrinal error (that they are overlooking) has catastrophic eternal consequences, which they don't seem to care one iota about, since their own souls are in grave peril. Thank you for doing your research, Shaun and bringing this to our attention. We must stay alert! As Charles H. Spurgeon wrote decades ago (regarding Roman Catholicism): "Since he was cursed who rebuilt Jericho, much more the man who labours to restore Popery among us. In our fathers' days the gigantic walls of Popery fell by the power of their faith, the perseverance of their efforts, and the blast of their gospel trumpets; and now there are some who would rebuild that accursed system upon its old foundations... It should be a serious business with us to be thoroughly purged of every error which may have a tendency to foster the spirit of Popery, and when we have made a clean sweep at home we should seek in every way to oppose its all too rapid spread abroad in the church and in the world.” Amen! But sadly, many are “asleep at the wheel” and are happily rebuilding this accursed system. Let the true believer have nothing to do with such error and warn as many who will listen to: “Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord.” (2 Cor. 6:17). We cannot afford to touch that “unclean thing.”

United States

Most thankful for this pamphlet [The Ministry of Rebuke – and How to Receive It], and I need to send it out. Most timely received, thank you.

England

Shaun, thank you for this [the pamphlet The Ministry of Rebuke – and How to Receive It], it is an excellent exhortation to esteem those who have the rule over us in the Lord. I have printed it out for my own reference.

England

Thank you for this article on The Ministry of Rebuke. How true it is that we find it offensive, even as Christians, to receive rebuke or correction, but oh how necessary it is!

Today there is such an attitude of never wanting to offend anyone even if they are outright sinning even in our presence! We love the favor of man more than the favor of our God! We want people to accept and love us even at the expense of offending our Lord with our silence or reciprocation! I'm guilty even though I seek not to be. And when I do gently try to lovingly correct, I get an immediate excuse and defense from them. Who am I to try to add some correcting influence to the situation? That's mean and not understanding! No one is ever wrong! They will always find a way to defend themselves every time! The spiritual state of affairs in our country is really sad...

Receiving correction for one's own spiritual safety and to avoid eternal disaster is almost totally disregarded today! In fact it is shunned and outright hated and rejected most of the time, even by so called Christians! And the messenger is also hated and rejected...

A lot of this has come as a result of the “Psychoheresy Self-esteem Movement”. It's now a sin not to feel good about yourself! We are in a battle! Lord help us!

God bless you, Shaun! You speak the truth in love! I appreciate you!

We have recently discovered Shaun Willcock's site and have been much encouraged and educated by it. We are confessing Christians in a Reformed and Presbyterian church and have long held precious the doctrines of grace. In recent years we have slowly discovered a further world view in relation to world events regarding the Illuminati, creeping Socialism and rising Islam but have found little to put it into a clear, coherent biblical perspective showing Satan and his tool, the Romish church so precisely behind all. Also, nobody we know agrees with us, so it has been a lovely blessing to read Shaun's clear, compassionate but firmly biblical approach. So delightful to discover a fearless, faithful minister of God's Word.

Australia

We have been reading many of your archive documents when we can and are prayerfully grateful. They are sparking many discussions and considerations.... May God continue to strengthen, comfort and uplift you and your family.... this world is again throwing up many confusing ideologies, ideas and actions that can test God's people. It has been helpful for us to find your thoughtful, earnest, biblical documents.

As with many things we find we have much to learn. I grew up next door to an Afrikaans family, not Christians. We also have met Christian families and ministers from South Africa and Zimbabwe. Still, it was not until I read your pieces on the brief history of the Afrikaans people (especially in relation to the Boer War) and the background to Nelson Mandela that I began to have a different understanding of how things really are in SA. Thank you.

We, in Australia, as you in Africa and many countries now suffer from History re-adjustment, History bias and just plain purposeful "disinformation". So I found it revealing to read of the reality of Nelson Mandela, the truth of apartheid and the damage done to SA as a result of his tumultuous prison release. Quite a leap for one who was a student during the Springbok/apartheid riots in Queensland!
