The Papal System Today: an Analysis of the News

The Great Reset

The New World Order by Another Name

Shaun Willcock

Only if a political matter is a threat to the Christian Church, fulfils Bible prophecy, or adds to the body of evidence exposing the enemies of Christ and His Church for what they really are, is there any need for Christians to spend time analysing and exposing it. Beyond such matters, believers need to concentrate on spiritual matters, the building up of the true Church of God, the sanctification of the saints, the evangelising of the lost, and preparing for heaven; for they are strangers and pilgrims in this world, and are to live as such.

Founder of the World Economic Forum Calls for “The Great Reset”

The internationalist puppet-masters are pushing this idea of “the Great Reset” as the solution to all that is supposedly wrong in the world, especially since the emergence of the coronavirus.

Remember when, not too many years ago, anyone who mentioned the New World Order was immediately branded a “conspiracy nut”, mocked and written off as an idiot? Yet now we hear the term everywhere, and on whose lips? On the lips of Francis I, pope of Rome; on the lips of Socialist politicians; etc. Suddenly they are speaking openly about what they so vociferously ridiculed before. Why? Well, back then they needed to conceal what they were doing, whereas today they are so confident, and so powerful, that they don’t need to hide their agenda. They have so completely indoctrinated the majority of the world’s people that they now speak openly of their one-world plans.

But they have renamed the New World Order since the onset of the coronavirus presented them with such a great opportunity. They now call it “The Great Reset.”

In June 2020 Klaus Schwab, founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum (WEF), wrote that a sharp global economic downturn had begun as a result of the coronavirus lockdowns, and that the world could be facing the worst depression since the 1930s. And then he added this:

“To achieve a better outcome, the world must act jointly and swiftly to revamp all aspects of our societies and economies, from education to social contracts and working conditions. Every country, from the United States to China, must participate, and every industry, from oil and gas to tech, must be transformed. In short, we need a ‘Great Reset’ of capitalism.”

This phrase, “The Great Reset”, took off like wildfire and was adopted by liberals, Socialists and Communists the world over. It neatly summed up what the Jesuit/Illuminati one-worlders were seeking to achieve: a complete transformation of all structures of society. What is this but international Communism? And note the arrogance: every country and industry must participate, must be transformed. There is no place for dissenting voices whatsoever. The puppet-masters plan to see to it that they have their way, in every aspect of life. No objections. No dissent.

The Great Reset: A New World Order Where NO Dissent Will be Tolerated

Do not be fooled by Schwab's words quoted above, "a 'Great Reset' of capitalism". He did not mean that Capitalism simply needed to be overhauled a little – improved in certain areas. He meant Capitalism needed to be utterly jettisoned, with Socialism/Communism taking its place everywhere on earth!

The Great Reset means nothing less than the achievement of the Communist agenda to abolish private property, democracy, money, freedom of religion, freedom of expression, freedom of travel, and all the other Communist objectives which they have worked to achieve for many decades. It is the creation of their much-longed-for New World Order. It is being organised and put into place by the globalist elites: the internationalist secret societies operating behind the scenes, under the centuries-old Illuminati, which in turn is under Rome's Jesuit Order. All the main high-profile globalists are fully committed to it: António Guterres, UN secretary general; Gina Gopinath, chief economist of the International Monetary Fund (IMF); the heads of governments and corporations the world over; even Prince Charles – to name just a few.

And the coronavirus "plandemic" is the instrument the globalists are using to set their objectives in stone. On 19 November 2020 Klaus Schwab said plainly, "Covid is an opportunity for a global reset."¹ And Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau did not try to hide the plans of these powerful individuals and entities: "This pandemic has provided an opportunity for a reset. This is our chance to accelerate our pre-pandemic efforts to re-imagine our economic systems that actually address global challenges like extreme poverty, inequality and climate change." Spoken like the true Socialist he is, with some of the usual Socialist phrases making their obligatory appearance, as they do in virtually every utterance by these people.

It's all a lie, of course. The internationalists do not want to eradicate poverty or make everyone equal, and they know "climate change" is a myth. For them it's all about power. They want to lord it over the whole earth, with the earth's citizens nothing but their docile slaves. The only sense in which they will be equal is that they will be equally in bondage.

Let us see how Schwab elaborated on these things. We need to take careful note of what he has uttered and written, because this is the globalist agenda being pushed on us all:

"It is obvious that we are in the midst of the most severe crisis the world has experienced since World War 2.... The Covid crisis has shown us that our old systems are not fit anymore for the 21st century. It has laid bare the fundamental lack of social cohesion, fairness, inclusion, and equality."²

By the "old systems" he meant Capitalism, the free market, etc., as is very evident from his lamenting the lack of "social cohesion, fairness, inclusion, and equality" – all Communist buzz words heard on the lips of radicals everywhere.

He went on: "Now is the historical moment, the time, not only to fight the virus but to shape the system for the... post-Corona era. We have a choice. Do we remain passive, which would lead to the amplification of many of the events we see today: polarization, nationalism, racism, and, ultimately, increased social unrest and conflicts? We can build a new social contract.... In short, we need a great reset! We have to mobilize all constituents of our global society to work together. We must not miss this unique window of opportunity."

Again, note the typical Communist buzz words and phrases. Note, also, how he blames social unrest and conflicts on others, never on the Communists who are the real instigators of them.

Just how all-encompassing is "The Great Reset?" The one-worlders are not hiding their intentions. On its "Great Reset" webpage, the WEF stated that as the world enters a "unique window of opportunity to shape the recovery, this initiative will offer insights to help inform all those determining the future state of global relations, the direction of national economies, the priorities of societies, the nature of business models and the management of a global commons."³ In a word, they plan to direct and control everything.

The Great Reset: Capitalism is Dead, Marxism Now Reigns

In late January 2021 the WEF released a video explaining the “Great Reset”, which would form the central discussion at the 2021 Davos Agenda meeting.⁴ It was extremely revealing. These people are no longer hiding their intentions. They are coming out openly and admitting that they are out to destroy Capitalism and reshape the world in the Communist mould.

The narrator said, “With everything falling apart, we can reshape the world in ways we couldn’t before. Ways that better address so many of the challenges we face. And that’s why so many are calling for a Great Reset.” Yes, everything is falling apart, but the internationalists are the very ones who caused this to happen. It was not spontaneous, it was deliberately planned.

How do they plan to do it? The WEF is calling for something called “stakeholder Capitalism”. What is this? It is Capitalism “with a dose of Marxism”, according to the WEF! Could anything be clearer? They are admitting it openly. This “stakeholder Capitalism” will, so they assure us, eliminate the disparities seen during the coronavirus “pandemic”. “Disparities” such as billionaires becoming even wealthier since the start of the “pandemic” while 150 million people experience extreme poverty. This is Marxism, of course: to take from the rich and give to the poor. In this way, they assure us, everyone will become rich. They know this isn’t true, but it’s what they want the world to swallow. They know very well that Marxism makes everyone poor – except the Elites, the one-worlders who will rule over a world of serfs.

Note how they will continue to use the word “Capitalism”, so as not to alarm conservatives and Capitalists too much – but they will now call it by this new phrase, “stakeholder Capitalism”. Sounds vague enough, but it’s Capitalism “with a dose of Marxism”. The truth is it won’t just be a dose.

In the WEF video Marc Benioff, CEO of Salesforce, made no bones about it: “Capitalism as we know it is dead,” he said. “This obsession that we have had with maximizing profits for shareholders alone has led to incredible inequality of the planetary emergency.” He would have known he was putting up a smokescreen. No “planetary emergency” has been caused by the free market. It is the greatest economic system in all history, and the only one that truly works. But now it is declared “dead”. What then will rise to take its place? World Marxism.

This is the “New Normal”: They Will Never Allow Things to Return to Normal

Note especially the following quotation from Schwab: “At the time of writing (June 2020), the pandemic continues to worsen globally. Many of us are pondering when things will return to normal. The short response is: never.”⁵

Let that sink in, dear reader. These evil men and women have no intention whatsoever of allowing the world to return to what it was before the coronavirus era. If they have their way – and as things stand now, they will – the world will never again return to anything like what it once was.

Just to make to make this point as strongly as he could, he went on: “Radical changes of such consequence are coming that some pundits have referred to a ‘before coronavirus’ (BC) and ‘after coronavirus’ (AC) era. We will continue to be surprised by both the rapidity and unexpected nature of these changes.... In so doing, they will shape a ‘new normal’ radically different from the one we will be progressively leaving behind. Many of our beliefs and assumptions about what the world could or should look like will be shattered in the process.”⁶

Only the United States Stood in the Way...

The only country on earth of any significant influence which stood in the way of the globalist agenda was the United States of America, under President Donald Trump. Therefore they had to remove him from office by any means necessary. The virus was not created to destroy Trump, but once it was out there it became an incredibly useful weapon to be used against him. The last year of his presidency was marked by a constant, never-ending stream of attacks on his achievements, his character, his plans, and everything he did concerning the coronavirus was turned against him, making it appear as if he did not care about the health of the citizens. The Communist revolutionaries in the Democratic Party and the moles in his own Republican Party, allied with the mainstream media, the social media giants, and violent domestic terrorist outfits like Black Lives Matter and Antifa, were never going to allow him to win a second term. Through a massively fraudulent election he was forced out and Joe Biden, a lying, hypocritical Jesuit-backed pro-Communist weakling, was installed as “president”, even though he did not win the election. A man fully committed to the “Great Reset.” In fact, his campaign slogan was lifted directly from Klaus Schwab of the WEF: “Build Back Better.”

Precisely as desired, the Biden administration lost no time in slavishly following the agenda of the “Great Reset” (the New World Order).

Back in November 2020 already, former US Secretary of State John Kerry, a radical leftist, stated that a Biden presidency would help propel the World Economic Forum’s “Great Reset” plan to use the coronavirus “pandemic” to transform the world economy. At a WEF panel Kerry said: “The notion of a reset is more important than ever before. I personally believe... we’re at the dawn of an extremely exciting time.”⁷ Far from being exciting, a nightmare world is dawning.

He added that Biden would rejoin the Paris Climate Accord, which would help drive the “Great Reset”. He also spoke of the speed with which these things would be implemented, saying that it “will happen with greater speed and with greater intensity than a lot of people might imagine.”

As for the European Commission, it is ultra-Socialist and was ecstatic over a Biden victory for precisely the same reasons. President of the European Commission, Ursula von der Leyen, said the Commission looked forward to the US rejoining the Paris agreement, and called Biden a “friend in the White House” (remember, he was not in the White House as yet! – but it was already decided that he would be, come what may). She then said she anticipated working with the US government to write “a new rulebook for the digital economy and the digital society”. And: “So, covering everything from data to infrastructure, but also talking about security and democracy, technology to fair taxation –all of these topics are on the table with digital change. So ladies and gentlemen, the need for global co-operation and this acceleration of change will both be drivers of the Great Reset. And I see this as an unprecedented opportunity.” She added that the most pressing issue was COVID-19, followed by “climate change” and technology.

Behind the Great Reset: the Jesuits and Their Pope

Foremost among Trump’s enemies, although unknown to most, even to otherwise-astute researchers, was the Roman pope, Francis I, and his fanatical Jesuit Order. Fully committed to the “Great Reset”, a strong supporter of Biden, devoted to the United Nations’ plans for a world government, and determined to placate China at all costs, a Capitalism-hater, Francis devoted his massive influence to undermining the Trump presidency at every opportunity. So did his Jesuits.

The Jesuit Doctor Speaks Like a Dictator: “Do As You’re Told”

In November 2020, as parts of the world prepared for still further lockdowns, Dr Anthony Fauci, the Jesuit-trained doctor at the forefront of the US government’s response to the coronavirus, said bluntly: “Now is the time to do what you’re told.”⁸

Sinister words indeed.

To put his words into context: he said the response to the virus by the USA should not be compared with other countries, because it was not an island with 5 million people that could be shut down. “I was talking with my UK colleagues who are saying the UK is similar to where we are now, because each of our countries have that independent spirit. I can understand that, but now is the time to do what you're told.”

Yet this man in almost the same breath had the audacity to say that it was unfortunate that during the coronavirus period the public perceived scientists as “authoritarian”. A more authoritarian statement than the one about doing what you are told would be hard to find anywhere!

And in the scientific journal, Cell, Fauci called for “radical changes” in the “infrastructures of human existence”. What was he calling for? The Great Reset.

Davos 2021: The Great Reset

In December 2020 the WEF declared that the need had never been greater, in a post-COVID world, for “global leaders to come together to design a common recovery path and shape the Great Reset”.

At a World Economic Forum event in January which was to be a run-up to the WEF’s annual Davos meetings of the world’s elite and powerful leaders, the Great Reset was to be an important feature. The virtual series was called “The Great Reset Dialogues”, a joint initiative of WEF and Britain’s Prince Charles, and in a preview the WEF stated: “The time to rebuild trust and to make crucial choices is fast approaching as the need to reset priorities and the urgency to reform systems grow stronger around the world.”⁹

The January 2021 WEF virtual conference featuring its Great Reset initiative opened with a speech by none other than the brutal Chinese Communist dictator, Xi Jinping. Yes, the same Xi Jinping whose country unleashed the coronavirus on the world. The same Xi Jinping whose country persecutes and murders Christians. None of this stopped WEF founder Klaus Schwab from saying what an “honour” it was for him to introduce Xi, or from commending China for its “many initiatives” undertaken “in the spirit of creating a world where all actors assume a responsible and responsive role.” He gushed, “Mr President, I believe this is the time to reset our policies and to work jointly for a peaceful and prosperous world.” Once again a reference to the Reset. And imagine desiring to work jointly with the Chinese Communist tyrant for “a peaceful and prosperous world”! There is no peace or prosperity for Christians languishing in Chinese prisons today. No peace or prosperity for millions of other Chinese suffering under the brutality of this nation’s Communist government. The fox is in the henhouse – but by invitation. It’s not a case of, “Come into my parlour, said the spider to the fly”, but rather, “Come into my parlour, said the fly to the spider. Let’s be friends and live peacefully together. I’ll ignore all those very dead flies whose remains I see still hanging from your web. I’ll even close my eyes to the many dead spiders I see there. I’m sure at heart you’re a nice, benign, pleasant, much-maligned spider who really desires to live at peace with all other creatures. Come in and welcome!”

In his remarks Xi said, “We have been shown time and again that to beggar thy neighbour, to go it alone and to slip into arrogant isolation will always fail. Let us all join hands and let multilateralism light our way toward a community with a shared future for mankind.” As long as this “shared future” means China will be on top.

How the World’s Citizens Have Been and Will Be Enslaved

It is diabolically clever.

By use of the controlled mainstream media, the world went into panic over the coronavirus, fear gripped the nations, and when their governments then clamped down and confined them to their homes they were only too willing to comply.

Thus the first step was accomplished: they succeeded in keeping the world’s citizens confined to their homes. Ostensibly still “free”, at least in their own brainwashed minds, but in reality prisoners. Prisoners in their own homes. However, they continued to think they were free even though they were not.

Next, being unable to leave their homes, for hundreds of millions around the world the only way to buy anything was via the internet. Already they had become slaves to the “idiot box” over decades, then slaves to the entertainment provided by the internet through their computers, smart phones, etc.; and now, starved of all outdoor or physical forms of their beloved entertainments, the only option was to keep their eyes – and brains – focused on the internet.

Thus the second step was accomplished: they succeeded in keeping the world’s citizens dependent upon the internet for their entertainment “fix”, for all their shopping, and even for all their interactions with loved ones. The globalists had them just where they wanted them: slaves to their gadgets, and thus ideally positioned to be brainwashed even further by their “ascendant masters”. Remember the screen in the home of the main character in George Orwell’s book, 1984? He could not escape it. It saw everything he did. It heard everything he said. Well, now hundreds of millions of the world’s citizens are utterly dependent on their screens. They are hooked on them for “entertainment”, and during the 2020 lockdowns they became essential for shopping, communications with fellow house-arrest prisoners, etc.

Lastly, how to keep the masses in this state of perpetual bondage? Easy enough: just keep threatening them with a never-ending parade of viruses, new strains, and at some stage even other threats, such as wars, natural disasters, etc. They don’t even all have to be true. The threat may not exist at all. It is enough that the people believe it exists. COVID-19 proved that.

The third step, then, is within reach of being accomplished: the world’s citizens kept in a state of constant fear of some danger or other to their lives or health, whether real or imaginary. This will keep them under house arrest, constantly connected to the net, easily pliable, easily brainwashed.

And then the enslavement is complete!

Conclusion

The threat to the true Christian Church is immense. The Lord’s people need to prepare, spiritually and physically, for the times ahead. It is going to be a very, very rough road. We need to hold firmly to the many promises of God’s Word, such as:

“I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb. 13:5)

“In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (Jn. 16:33)

“When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee” (Isa. 43:2).
